By a steamboat explosion on a Western river a passenger was thrown unhurt into the water and at once struck out for the shore, blowing like a porpoise. He reached the bank almost exhausted, and was caught by a bystander, and drawn out panting "Well, old fellow said his friend, "had a pretty warm time, eh" "Ye yes pretty hard, considerin Wasn't doing it for myself though was a working for one of them insurance companies in New York Got a policy on my life and I wanted to save em I didn't care"

Since Illinois poured forth her myriads so gloriously for the support of the Union cause her soubriquet has been changed by general consent, from the Sucker State to the Succor State

Why are jegged boots like the ghost in Hamlet? Because they harrow up the soul.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store and at Charles Barrett's corner of Front and Alder street.

CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF SUFFERING IMMIGRANTS.—All who desire to assist the poor immigrants who are now in our midst should go to the concert to-night at the M. E. Church. We hope that this commendable and charitable effort may be abundantly rewarded and the proceeds may count up several hundred dollars.

PRESERVED CHEESE.—We acknowledge the receipt of a slice of excellent cheese from Mr. H. R. Hathaway, Lake River, W. T. It goes first rate with a dish of apple-cobblers, you bet.

WEATHER ITEM.—We will be excused for saying that the weather has been remarkably dry, warm and clear, this Fall. Before this time last Fall, the streets of our city were flooded with water, and the web footed tribe were enjoying a good time paddling around in the many mud puddles.

FIRST COME.—Another large number of passengers arrived last night on the Julia from the Cascades. We noticed that several of the passengers had good sized bags of gold dust with them, and all seemed cheerful and independent.

BENEFIT OF MISS VIRGINIA LAWRENCE.—It will be remembered that to-night Miss Virginia Lawrence takes a benefit at the William Tell Theatre. An excellent programme is offered for the occasion and we doubt not the house will prove a substantial one, as she is deserving of this mark of esteem and encouragement.

THE MILITIA LAW.—We finish the publication of the Act to organize the militia of this State, passed at the last session of the Legislature. We have given it a large space in our last three issues, because we regard the law as one of the most important passed by that body during its session, and although it may not prove very interesting to many of our city readers, yet we are satisfied that our country friends will be glad to know its principal provisions and requirements. We are aware of this distinction of interest between city and country readers, because we believe that a majority of those living in the city will never feel the same interest in such subjects as those in the country, choosing rather to pay the two dollars militia tax than to volunteer and form companies and attend musters, etc.

FROM WALLA WALLA.—We are again indebted to Dr. Loryea for the following extracts from a private letter addressed to him by his partner, Dr. Hawthorne, from Walla Walla, under date of October 1st, 1862.

The growth of this whole upper country will astonish the people generally. You can have but an estimate of the great resources that are to be brought to light within a few years, all depending upon the gold fields—which are both extensive and rich, and will improve in every respect from year to year. Several persons just from the new Boise river have come in within the week—they are all going back, and report the mines as very rich—having paid as high as $16 to the pan.—The gold is very good looking and resembles the Fraser. It is found principally in the gulches and ravines putting into the tributaries of the Snake. As yet the river and its bars have not been thoroughly prospected, the locality is high as I suppose by accounts, the climate is cold and deep snow in winter, therefore persons going there should be well provided with provisions and clothing.

But this is another rich gold field, I feel quite certain, though allowance must be made for exaggerations, &c. Many are leaving here for those mines, and it will not be long before we will have another Salmon river town, from present indications.

This little town (Walla Walla) has improved very much since last Spring, having at least doubled its size and inhabitants. It is brisk, and every one appears to be doing well—all. Merchants are growing rich very fast. Everything together, it is the most lively little town that I have seen for a long time. It contains many good as well as bad people.

AN OLD MAN'S REVENGE.—Mrs. Peasley is an old maid, but can't help that. It generally runs in these cases. And before I forget it, I will tell you a little story, and let me call it "Mrs. Peasley's Revenge."

Mrs. Peasley was once betrothed to a young man, which he was engaged in merchandising. He said he thought all the world of her, and stated that unless she consented for to be his'n, he should lose all rest, victuals, and his dead corps would be found "floatin' in the river some fine mornin'." Mrs. Peasley reciprocated his pretended love, and being a good girl as she was, she said his wife she would be her people, and that where he went she wentest she would likewise wentest with him. But she never wentested. The false lover went and married a rich young widow with a temper like vinegar and crab apples. She made him mis'ble by her cutting remarks, which it pleased Mrs. Peasley. But she wasn't sufficiently revenged as yet. She bided her time and it came.

The widow's husband got religion one day and it was given out that he would be baptized on a certain Sunday, with some other converts. A large crowd assembled to see the baptizing, and as the minister was leading the man into the lake, Mrs. Peasley stepped up and gave him a large bar of yaller soap. The minister was so stonished he scarcely knew what he was about, he took the soap in one hand and the mercantile man in the other, and marched into the water. The convicted's wife stood among the crowd on the shore of the lake at the time, and been as it has allus been supposed, actuated by a spirit of revengedness, hollered out as loud as she could holler, "That's right. Give him a good washin', Mister Minister!" Mrs. Peasley was revenged.—Ward.

Ayer's Pulmonary Syrup is the Greatest Remedy of the Age, for all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, &c., &c. It is agreeable to the taste, soothing in its effects, simple and effectual far beyond any other preparation. RADILSTON & CO.

FIELD'S STEAMED OYSTERS!

MR. A. FIELD, whose Oysters have long enjoyed the highest reputation in this market, has recently invented an entirely new process of packing which possesses many advantages over the one hitherto employed. It not only preserves the natural flavor freshness and shape of the Oyster that they may be either Stewed Fried Scalloped or Fancy Roasted—in fact cooked in any manner adapted to those taken from the shell. They will not be broken into pieces by land travel however lengthy, and will retain their sweetness after the can is cut longer than secured by any other method.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils, and is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally and the same externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.
If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.
If you have a severe tooth-ache apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time it will stop the pain instantly.
If you have a pain in the Breast Side, Back or Kidneys bathe the parts affected morning and night at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.
If a Mother has a caked breast apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold as though you were going to have a fever take a dose of Panacea.
If you have a wound cut, or galls upon your horse apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

From the Oregon Farmer.

Educational.

It is a poor hope that breeds indifference to the present. That hopefulness alone has virtue in it which stimulates to effort in behalf of the thing hoped for.

So the trials to which we, as a nation, are now subject, produce, together with a great deal of vain confidence, a certain hopefulness of the future, that, as it is born of trial, is sturdy and energic. And this is so, because the trial shows our weakness, and places hope on the right foundation of correct effort. It shows in fact what we are apt to forget, that the price of every good thing in this world, and of every anticipated good in the next, is wisely directed effort. When hope finds an assured foundation of this kind, it purifies itself from useless imaginings, and becomes almost, purely, effort.

In proportion as we are wisely hopeful of our national future, we shall become energetic to secure that future. As it is plain that ignorance and vice have been active among the causes of this rebellion, so the war also makes it clear that virtue and intelligence are the only foundation upon which to build permanent prosperity for our free institutions. This is a verification of an hereditary maxim. Moreover, we see that to prevent a recurrence of a similar trial, there must be an increase of these popular qualities.

If we are patriots, and hope well for our country, we must not only risk our lives on the bloody field, but we must bestir ourselves—it is the lesson of the hour, to build in the foundations of our free institutions by advancing to greater efficiency, our system of public instruction; for this is the means, if rightly developed, of securing to our people intelligence, virtue and public civility.

We have received from our wise fathers, this system of public instruction in our Common Schools—admirably adapted to our wants, the gift of the genius of liberty, and transmitted to us as a most glorious legacy. Its only possible defect is that it depends for its efficiency upon the intelligence which it is designed to educate.

Is this possible defect an actual defect? How earnestly, and faithfully are we, here in Oregon, in our State, Counties, neighborhoods, and as individuals, doing what we can to make this system available?

Is our hopefulness for our country an idle, braggart hope, or is it an earnest, manly hope?

Pre-Emption Law,

SEPTEMBER, 21st, 1862.

ED. FARMER:—As the existing Pre-emption Law ceases to be law in Oregon by proclamation of the President of the United States, bringing the lands into market on the 6th and 13th October, 1862, being prior to the taking effect of the general provisions of the Homestead Law, the special provisions of the law in section 6th, provides that all pre-emptors that have filed their intentions to pre-empt prior to the passage of the Act, shall be entitled to all of the provisions of the Homestead Act. Now, there have been lands entered under the provisions of the Pre-emption Law, some protesting against the sale of their tracts (wishing to avail themselves of the Homestead,) in writing to the Register and Receivers of the Land Office; others not. Now the Representative and Senator elect manifest a willingness to have a law passed by Congress to refund the money to pre-emptors wishing to avail themselves of the homestead, the law operating against the best interests of the State. Persons who, by their indolence, have not added value to their pre-emptions, or wealth to the State, can safely rest their claims of pre-emption until after the public land sales, and then avail themselves of the pre-emption; consequently honester persons who have expended their all on their pre-emptions, rendering their homes extremely desirable, consequently enhancing the revenue of the State, and thereby reducing the person to the necessity of borrowing money under the pressure of a general land sale, at an exorbitant rate of interest. Justice to the State and people require that the money be refunded to those wishing to avail themselves of the benefit of the Homestead.

Yours truly, ALFRED B. COLVER.

AN AFFECTING INTERVIEW.—Your correspondent, who was with the President in his late visits, relates the following which is strictly true:

"After leaving General Richardson, the party passed a house in which was a large number of Confederate wounded. By request of the President, the party alighted and entered the building. Lincoln, after looking, remarked to the wounded Confederates that if they had no objection, he would be pleased to take them by the hand. He said the solemn obligations which we owe to our country and posterity, compel the prosecution of this war, and it followed that many were our enemies through uncontrollable circumstances, and he bore them no malice, and could take them by the hand with sympathy and good feeling. After a short silence the Confederates came forward, and each silently but fervently shook the hand of the President. Lincoln and Gen. McClellan then walked forward by the side of those who were wounded too severely to be able to arise, and bid them be of good cheer; assuring them that every possible care should be bestowed upon them to ameliorate their condition. It was a moving scene, and there was not a dry eye in the building, either among the Nationals or Confederates. Both the President and General McClellan were kind in their remarks and treatment of the rebel sufferers during this remarkable interview.—Washington Correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial.

THE RESTORATION OF MCCLELLAN.—The Chicago Post says:

"A distinguished Northwestern Statesman informs us that the restoration of McClellan to the chief command of the army in Virginia was the President's own act; that it was neither 'dictated' by the army, nor advised by any living soul, with the single exception of Gen. Halleck."

A fellow has been apprehended in London for writing a series of letters to Baron Rothschild & Co., to the effect that he must have five hundred pounds, or else he would assassinate one of the firm. The Israelite financiers cunningly protracted the correspondence by the very Jewish device of beating the applicant down, and having brought him to £150, caught him by decoy letters. He was imprisoned for trial.

U. S. ASSESSOR'S NOTICE.

PERSONS SUBJECT TO EXCISE DUTIES under the Revenue Law of the United States, approved July 1st, 1862, entitled "An Act to provide Internal Revenue for the support of the Government, and to pay interest on the Public Debt," are hereby notified that the law went into operation on the 1st of September.

All persons engaged in occupations requiring daily, tri-monthly, monthly, or quarterly special taxes, are informed that the Assessor's Department will be organized as speedily as possible. Meantime THESE RECORDS should commence September 1st, in order to ensure uniform justice to themselves and the Government, as the Law will be retrospective in its application to all classes subject to excise, whatever necessary delay may occur in organizing the Department. The Section relating to Stamps will take effect from and after October 1st.

THOMAS FRAZAR,
Assessor for Oregon.
